

Sahuaros Weekly Update

"Where neighbors help neighbors build community."

Vice Mayor Steve Frate, Glendale Arizona

January 27, 2012

As part of the renovations at Sahuaros Ranch Park, the Glendale Public Art Program commissioned artist Laurie Lundquist to create the new entry monuments signs.

Neighborhood Dialogue with Vice Mayor Frate. Join Vice Mayor Frate for an informal neighborhood meeting for residents living in the Sahuaros District on Wednesday, February 15, 2012, from 5:30-7 p.m., at Arrowhead Towne Center (just outside the Sears store, lower level.) Please stop by, enjoy some light refreshments, and discuss your ideas or suggestions for Glendale. The casual atmosphere will allow you to stay for a few minutes or longer as time permits. For more information, call the City Council Office at (623) 930-2016.

Glendale Chocolate Affaire. The weekend before Valentine's Day, Feb. 3-5, is a delicious delight for the senses as the Glendale Chocolate Affaire takes over downtown Glendale to create a chocolate-lover's dream!

Chocolate purveyors from Arizona and around the nation gather in Glendale for this award-winning festival, which celebrates not only chocolate, but romance and the arts as well. Chocolate confections will include items such as chocolate-covered bacon, chocolate-covered churros, chocolate-covered twinkies, chocolate-covered key lime pie, fried ice cream with chocolate and strawberries, chocolate-covered crepes and much more.

The Chocolate Affaire is sponsored by Arizona's famous candy makers, Cerreta's. The candy factory will offer tours all weekend, so visitors can get a behind-the-scenes look at how the chocolatiers create everyone's favorite candy.

In addition, the festival has become the largest gathering of national romance novelists in the Southwest. This symposium of literary romantics offers fans the opportunity to get up close and personal with authors, as well as the chance to attend free writing workshops given by the experts.

Families with children will enjoy myriad activities, including hands-on arts and crafts, face-painting and a rock-climbing wall. Horse-drawn carriage rides will be available throughout the weekend to take couples or families on a scenic, charming ride through the historic Catlin Court district.

Arizona's Centennial will also be part of the Glendale Chocolate Affaire. During the event, the Glendale Arts Commission will put on a Plein Air painting contest with artists from all over the state coming to compete at this event. This year a major part of the competition instructions include painting historical subjects from the West Valley to acknowledge or salute the centennial, creating artwork to display tie-ins to the centennial such as Sahuaro Ranch, Beet Sugar Factory, First United Methodist Church and Murphy Park, all destinations that are more than 100 years old. In addition, State Historian Marshall Trimble will be featured in the lineup of writer's workshops, giving a presentation on Arizona history. Finally, Glendale has displayed a giant "Happy 100th Birthday Arizona" sign constructed out of lights that will be glowing on the side of City Hall for the three-day event.

The Glendale Chocolate Affaire is sponsored by Cerreta's Candy Company, ABC 15, The Arizona Republic, Valley Buick-GMC Dealers, YooHoo, KMLE, KOOL and JAMZ. Click here for more information.

F-35 Squadrons One Step Closer to Being Stationed at Luke AFB. On January 20, the U.S. Air Force has released the Draft F-35A Training Environmental Impact Statement (EIS) report, paving the way for up to six squadrons – totaling 144 aircraft – of the new fighter jets to be stationed at Luke Air Force Base.

The F-35A Lightning II is the Air Force's variant of the Joint Strike Fighter, which will replace the F-16 Falcon and the A-10 Thunderbolt as the Air Force's new multi-role fighter. Read more.
